

Lead Teacher

 Living Christ Early Learning Center

Living Christ Early Learning Center is seeking a strong, dependable, and nurturing Lead Teacher to join our team in a warm, faith-based environment.

We are looking for a teacher who understands the importance of structure, consistency, positive guidance, and relationship-building within the classroom. This role is ideal for someone who is confident in leading a classroom, building routines, supporting behaviors positively, and creating a calm, engaging environment where children can thrive spiritually, emotionally, socially, physically, and intellectually.

The teacher is responsible for providing a warm, nurturing, safe, and loving Christian environment while supporting each child's growth and development through meaningful interactions, engaging activities, and strong communication with families.

The Lead Teacher reports directly to the Director.
